The New Victory Theater Presents

Montreal Theater Company Splashes onto the New Victory Stage September 30 – October 10

New York, NY (August 30, 2016) – Astonishing sea creatures! Colossal battleships! Uncharted undersea worlds! Get swept away by this wildly inventive reimagining of a classic tale. Using an astounding array of media, including puppetry, projection and online engagement, Montréal-based Kidoons/WYRD Productions brings this fast-paced, action-packed adaptation of Jules Verne's TWENTY THOUSAND LEAGUES UNDER THE SEA to The New Victory Theater, September 30 – October 10, 2016.

This modern reinvention of the science fiction classic, the source of countless film, comic book and graphic novel adaptations, now comes to brilliant life in this stunning, all-new theatrical production. The story follows Jules, a 36-year-old doctoral student, whose favorite novel happens to be Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea, writing a thesis on the dark future that awaits the earth's oceans and mankind. When Jules begins to sink into the depths of despair, he finds himself transported into the heart of his favorite story in search of a dangerous sea creature, alongside Professor Aronnax and Ned Land. See what mysteries await when Jules—now at the helm of the story's narrative—and his shipmates are taken captive aboard the Nautilus, and drawn deeper and deeper into the nefarious Captain Nemo's world.

Kidoons/WYRD Productions has created accompanying digital content that audience members can enjoy at intermission and after the show. Audiences are invited to climb aboard the Nautilus online by visiting app.20kshow.com, where they can be a part of the continued adventures of Captain Nemo on the Kidoons Network, as well as the Nautilus Leaks series. TWENTY THOUSAND LEAGUES UNDER THE SEA is written by Craig Francis and Rick Miller, and directed by Dora and Gemini award-winner Rick Miller. The show features Rick Miller as Jules; Suzy Jane Hunt as Professor Claire Aronnax; Marcel Jeannin as Ned Land; and Richard Clarkin as Captain Nemo.

Kidoons/WYRD Productions is a unique concept in family entertainment and storytelling, integrating online education and live entertainment. WYRD is one of Canada's leading international exporters of multimedia theater, whose past productions include MacHomer, Bigger Than Jesus and HARDSELL. The Kidoons Network has created award-winning online educational storytelling for families all over the world. Together, they have not only developed the stage shows Twenty Thousand Leagues Under The Sea, BOOM (the most-produced new play in Canada in 2015-16) and GAME of CLONES, but also web series such as Jerry Muskrat, Science Toons and Nautilus Leaks that expand on the themes of the play. The video episodes are developed in collaboration with organizations across North America, on topics including history, culture, science and water conservation. Kidoons/WYRD Productions meet with museums, municipalities and companies, and each episode created is connected to a growing storyline on the Kidoons network.
